C. SHARES

4. ISSUE OF SHARES

- (1) The Board may issue such shares to such persons as it considers appropriate, in accordance with Section 51 of the Act. Where the shares confer rights other than those specified in subsection (2) of Section 49 of the Act, or impose any obligation on the holder, the Board shall approve terms of the issue which set out the rights and obligations attached to those shares.
- (2) Before it issues shares, the Board shall decide the consideration for which the shares may be issued and shall resolve that in the opinion of the Board, such consideration is fair and reasonable to the Company and to all existing shareholders.
- (3) Where the Company issues shares which rank equally with or above existing shares in relation to voting or distribution rights, those shares shall unless determined otherwise by special resolution be offered to the holders of the existing shares in a manner which would, if the offer is accepted, maintain the relative voting and distribution rights of those shareholders.
- (4) The said offer shall remain open for acceptance for a reasonable period of time and, if not expressly accepted within such time, the offer shall be deemed not to have been accepted by the respective offeree holder. The Company may, at the time of making the 'said offer, request holders of the existing shares who desire an allotment of shares in excess of their respective proportions, to state how many excess shares each such holder desires and if any holders of existing shares do not accept the whole of their respective proportions, the shares not so accepted may be allotted to those holders who desire an excess allotment in such numbers as the Directors decide or may be allotted and issued to such other persons as the Directors consider it appropriate.
- (5) The Company may, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the rules and regulations in force for the time being and from time to time, of a licensed Stock Exchange, if and to the extent applicable to the Company,
 - (a) issue shares that may result in an increase or decrease of the number of shares issued by the Company pursuant to a decision of the Company to effect a sub division of existing shares or a consolidation of shares;
 - (b) issue shares pursuant to a capitalization of the reserves of the company or by way of dividends; or
- (6) The Company shall not register more than three persons as joint holders (including the principal holder) of any shares (except in the case of executors, administrators or heirs of a deceased member),

- (7) The Company may issue redeemable shares as decided by the Board at the time of each issue, which may be redeemed by the Company at the option of the Company or at the option of the holders of such shares or on a date specified by the Board, for a consideration that is specified by the Board at the time of issue or at a sum to be calculated by reference to a formula or fixed by a suitably qualified person, who is not associated with or interested in the Company, as decided by the Board at the time of issue.

5. CALLS ON SHARES

- (1) Where a share imposes any obligation on the holder to pay an amount of money -
 - (a) on a fixed date, the holder shall pay that amount on that date; or
 - (b) when called on to do so by the Board, the Board may at any time give written notice to the holder requiring the payment to be made within a specified period of not less than fifteen (15) days; and the payment shall be made in accordance with that notice.

Any amount not paid by the due date shall carry interest at a rate fixed by the Board not exceeding fifteen percent (15%) per annum, accruing daily. The Board may, at its discretion, waive payment of interest.

- (2) Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable for any payments to be made under paragraph (1) of this Article.
- (3) The Company shall have a first charge or a paramount lien on every share to which paragraph (1) of this Article applies, and on every distribution payable in respect of that share, for all amounts presently due and payable to the Company in respect of that share.
- (4) For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Company may sell in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, if
 - (a) the Company has given written notice of its intention to do so to the shareholder; and
 - (b) the shareholder has failed to make the payment in respect of which the lien has arisen, within ten (10) working days of the giving of that notice.

Upon any sale for enforcing a lien, the Board may appoint any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold, whereupon the purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares transferred and his title shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the sale.

- (5) The proceeds of a sale under paragraph (4) of this Article shall be received by the Company and applied first in payment of the costs of sale and then in payment of the amount in respect of which the lien arose. The remainder, if any, shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares, at the time of the sale.

6. SHARE REGISTER

- (1) The Company shall maintain a share register, which complies with Section 123 of the Act. The share register shall be kept at the registered office of the Company or at any other place in Sri Lanka, notice of which has been given to the Registrar in accordance with subsection (4) of Section 124 of the Act.
- (2) The share register may be divided into two or more registers kept at different places, as maybe decided by the Board.

7. SHARE TRANSFER

- (1) The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of shareholders in respect thereof,
- (2) Subject to such restrictions of these rules as may be applicable, any shareholder may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Directors may approve.
- (3) The Directors may decline to register the transfer of a share which is not fully paid up and they may also decline to register the transfer of a share on which the Company has a lien.
- (4) The Directors may also decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless: -
 - a. The instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
 - b. The instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share.
- (5) Where the Directors refuse to register a transfer, they shall, within one (I) month from the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.
- (6) The registration of transfers may be suspended at such time and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year.

- (7) The Company shall be entitled to charge a fee not exceeding fifty rupees on the registration of every probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, Power of Attorney or other instrument.
- (8) Notwithstanding any provision in these Articles suggesting the contrary, shares if any, listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange shall be freely transferable and registration of the transfer of such listed shares shall not be subject to any restriction, save and except to the extent required for compliance with statutory requirements.
- (9) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these articles, if and as long as the shares of the Company are listed in Colombo Stock Exchange, the Board may register without assuming any liability therefor any transfer of shares which, is in accordance with the rules and regulations in force for the time being and from time to time as laid down by the Colombo Stock Exchange and / or by the Central Depository of the Colombo Stock Exchange.

8. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- (1) In case of the death of a shareholder the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal representative of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
- (2) There shall be no restriction by way of limitation of number in regard to the persons to be registered as joint holders of a share where such persons are executors or administrators or heirs of a deceased holder.
- (3) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of a shareholder may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Directors shall in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that shareholder before his death, bankruptcy or insolvency, as the case may be.
- (4) Where the person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. Where he elects to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these rules relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of the shareholder had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by the shareholder.

- (5) A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a shareholder in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company;

Provided always that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and where the notice is not complied with within ninety days the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

9. SHARE CERTIFICATES

- (1) Where the Company issues shares or the transfer of any shares is entered on the share register, the Company shall within two (2) months complete and have ready for delivery a share certificate in respect of the shares.
- (2) Where a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed it may be re-issued on payment of the cost of issue or such lesser sum and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the Company for investigating evidence as the Directors think fit.

10. PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

The Company may purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares in accordance with Section 64 of the Act.

11. SUB-DIVISION OR CONSOLIDATION OF SHARES

- (1) The Company may subdivide all of the shares in the Company or all of the shares in a particular class of shares in the Company into a greater number of shares, in proportion to those shares, leaving unaffected the relative voting and distribution rights of the holders of those shares, by following a procedure that the Board may consider appropriate.

- (2) The Company may consolidate all of the shares in the Company or all of the shares in a particular class of shares in the Company into a lesser number of shares, in proportion to those shares, leaving unaffected the relative voting and distribution rights of the holders of those shares, by following a procedure that the Board may consider appropriate.

12. RESERVES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

- (1) The Company may make distributions to shareholders in accordance with Section 56 of the Act. The Board shall be satisfied that the Company shall immediately after the distribution satisfy the solvency test. The Directors who vote in favour of the distribution shall sign a certificate of their opinion to that effect.
- (2) The Company is deemed to have satisfied the solvency test if-
- a. it is able to pay its debts as they become due in the normal course of business; and
 - b. the value of its assets is greater than the sum of the value of its liabilities and its stated capital.
- (3) Except in the case where a distribution is a final dividend, the approval of the shareholders by an ordinary resolution or otherwise shall not be required before such distribution is made.
- (4) Before the Directors make any distributions, they may set aside, out of the profits of the Company, such sum as they think proper as a reserve fund or funds.
- (5) The Directors may divide the reserve fund or funds into such special funds as they think fit, with full power to employ the assets constituting the reserve fund in the business of the Company for any purpose which they may from time to time deem expedient and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets and the Directors may also carry forward any profits which they may deem it not prudent to divide.
- (6) The Board may decide to capitalize any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve funds/accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly to set free such sum for distribution amongst the shareholders who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions, on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such shareholders respectively or paying up in full shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted, issued and distributed credited as fully paid up to and amongst such shareholders in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other.

- (7) Whenever such a decision as aforesaid shall have been made the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits to be capitalized and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.
- (8) The Board may authorize a distribution by way of a dividend to be paid to the shareholders according to their rights and interests in the profits and may fix the time for payment. No dividend shall be payable out of the capital of the Company.
- (9) Any dividend or interim dividend which may be authorized by the Directors, may be paid by means of cash or by the distribution of specific assets and, in particular, of paid-up shares, debentures or debenture stock of the Company or of any other company or in any other form of specie or in any one or more of such ways and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, they may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any shareholders upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Board.
- (10) No shareholder shall be entitled to receive payment of any dividend or any allotment and issue of shares credited as fully paid up in respect of his share or shares whilst any moneys may be due or owing from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company in respect of such share or shares or otherwise howsoever.
- (11) No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.
- (12) The Directors may deduct from the dividend payable to any shareholder all sums of money due from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company and notwithstanding such sums shall not be payable until after the date when such dividend is payable. A transfer of shares shall not pass the rights to any dividend declared thereon before the registration of the transfer.
- (13) Unless otherwise directed any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent by post to the registered address of the shareholders entitled thereto or, in the case of joint-holders, to the registered address of that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint-holding; but the Company shall not be liable or responsible for the loss of any such cheque or dividend warrant sent through the post.

- (14) All dividends unclaimed for one (1) year after having been declared may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed and the Company shall not be constituted a trustee in respect thereof. All dividends unclaimed for six (6) years after having been declared shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.
- (15) Every dividend payable in respect of any share held by several persons jointly may be paid to and an effectual receipt given by, any one of such persons.

D. MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS
